

POSITION – Construction Inspector

NICET Level 2 or EIT

Join our growing civil engineering firm and build your career by getting a broad range of direct experience on innovative commercial, industrial, and residential projects throughout the metro area. Catizone Engineering, PC, is a Larchmont, NY-based civil engineering consulting company. Work with a collaborative, detail-oriented team with a client-centered focus. Great opportunity to learn and grow and work in vibrant downtown Larchmont, NY. Flexible work schedule. Competitive benefits.

Responsibilities

- Review project submittals for conformance with construction documents
- Respond to “Requests for Information” from bidders.
- Provide construction observations for infrastructure projects and document conformance.
- Verify elevations and locations of installed works.
- Prepare calculations and observe utilities testing for water main and sanitary mainline and other utilities.
- Perform NYSDEC SPDES observations for Sediment and Erosion Control.
- Respond to filed issues.
- Prepare redline as-built plans utilizing ACAD
- Conduct soils percolation testing.
- Assist Engineering staff in preparing documents and submittals

Qualifications

- NICET Level 2 in Civil Engineering Technology or NYS EIT
- Knowledge or experience in utility infrastructure installation
- Ability to understand and interpret construction drawings
- Excellent verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills
- Ability to independently manage multiple tasks and interact appropriately and positively with coworkers
- Self-motivated with attention to detail
- Ability to think critically
- Possess reliable transportation to access job sites with a valid driver’s license in good standing

Apply at cat-eng.com/careers