

POSITION - Staff Engineer

Engineering Bachelor's Degree Required

Join our growing civil engineering firm and build your career by getting a broad range of direct experience on innovative commercial, industrial, and residential projects throughout the metro area. Catizone Engineering, PC, is a Larchmont, NY-based civil engineering consulting company. Work with a collaborative, detail-oriented team with a client-centered focus. Great opportunity to learn and grow and work in vibrant downtown Larchmont, NY. Flexible work schedule. Competitive benefits.

Responsibilities

- Prepare site design including layout, grading utility design, capacity analysis, and stormwater management design (SWPPP)
- Develop technical designs
- Attend Planning Board/ Zoning Board of Appeals and other land use commission meetings
- Prepare and review design criteria, drawings, and specifications
- Prepare/review technical calculations and reports
- Prepare construction estimate of probable cost
- Provide RFI support and construction observations for construction phase design

Qualifications

- Up to 6 years of experience
- Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from an accredited university
- NYS Professional Engineering certification preferred
- ACAD and ACAD Civil 3D experience
- Hydraulic modeling software experience
- Willingness to work in the field as necessary
- Possession of reliable transportation to access job sites and valid driver's license in good standing
- Excellent verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills
- Self-motivation, attention to detail and critical thinking
- Receptiveness to the input and suggestions of others

Apply at cat-eng.com/careers